#Get The Look
The application of black wallpaper is balanced with white homogeneous flooring and other whitewashed walls. This offsets the otherwise dreary and somber feel.

LIVING To better divide the living area from the kitchen, the existing boundary walls were hacked away and glass panels were put up. This creates a spacious and light-filled living zone. The airy appearance is further accentuated by the white homogeneous floor tiles and a recessed ceiling feature. The cove lighting helps to usher in warmth for the monochromatic-coloured space.

BALCONY (top left) To blur the line of separation between the living and the balcony, the designers used glass sliding doors. This see-through application makes the overall look of the entire home more spacious and airy. Black homogeneous tiles used in the balcony also adds to the illusion that it is part of the interior.

DINING (top right) Tinted mirrors are the main focal point of the dining zone. To amp up the overall look, a canary yellow dining set sits in the middle of the room. Casting a halo effect in the space is the modern-looking pendant lamp.

BEDROOM (bottom left) Charming in its own right with slightly textured wallpaper and wood flooring, the bedroom oozes with class. Wall-hung side tables and the TV console help to save on floor space and to facilitate the ease of cleaning underneath it.

The team of designers at Renozone pride themselves for creating long term relationships with their customers. One of the main reasons why they manage to cultivate such amiable ties is because the company takes pride in all the projects that they have completed. Renozone guarantees quality workmanship and services, making customer satisfaction their top priority.

KITCHEN (bottom right) No space was wasted here as the designers from Renozone managed to carve out display space at the corner of the kitchen. It is used to showcase the homeowners' coveted liquor collection. The classic combo of black and white is also applied to the kitchen and for design consistency. It is reflected in the high gloss white laminate cabinetry and black homogeneous floor tiles.
