1 Living Room

While the gathering zone adopts a neutral palette, it is richly textured with fluted details across the back wall, as well as stone and wood patterns along the custom media wall and nubby fabric on the seats and carpet. Though mostly hidden away, the ambient lighting tucked behind the curtain track, under the planter and along the top and bottom of the media unit helps to create a welcoming atmosphere whether it's night or day.

2 Kitchen

Bold woodgrain surfaces, black and white flooring and mosaic tiles come together to create a showstopping kitchen that invites guests to gather. An adjacent wall was fitted with mirrors, maximising visual impact and opening up the space. For practicality, a folding door and sliding windows were added so the homeowners can shut off the kitchen when heavy cooking is underway.

3 Main Bedroom

Pulling elements from the living room, the primary suite repeats the use of fluting details, stone-look panels and mood lighting to create a luxurious and cosy tactile haven. By sticking to similar taupe tones for the side tables, bed frame and soft furnishings, the overall feel is relaxing and warm without looking busy.

4 Dressing Room

Equipped with closed storage and just the essentials, this room offers plenty of space to get dressed comfortably without any distracting clutter. For a touch of glamour, the walls are clad in a floral-patterned wallpaper which has a subtle shimmer.

5 En-suite Bathroom

The space was greatly brightened with light tiles wrapped across the floors and walls. By installing a floating sink, glass shower divider and a large mirrored cabinet to tuck away essentials, the bathroom has an airy openness that gives it a spa-like feel.
